

EXHIBIT 7

MEDIATION AGREEMENT

1. The parties and attorneys agree to engage in mediation in an effort to resolve issues raised in Meyer, Doering, et al. / Blinken, Antony J., et al. The parties understand that mediation is voluntary and may be terminated at any time.
2. The parties and attorneys understand that the mediator(s) has no authority to decide the case and is not acting as advocates or attorneys for any party.
3. The mediator, each party, and counsel confirm that they have disclosed or will disclose any past or present relationship or other information that a reasonable person would believe could influence the mediator's impartiality. The mediator practices in association with JAMS. From time to time, JAMS may enter into arrangements with corporations (including insurance companies), government entities, and other organizations to make available dispute resolution professionals in a particular locale, for a specific type of matter or training, or for a particular period of time. In addition, other professionals in JAMS may have served as neutrals in matters involving the parties hereto. The mediator is not aware of any aspect of these relationships that would create a conflict or interfere with his/her acting as a mediator in this matter.

Each JAMS neutral, including the neutral in this case, has an economic interest in the overall financial success of JAMS. In addition, because of the nature and size of JAMS the parties should assume that one or more of the other neutrals who practice with JAMS has participated in an arbitration, mediation, or other dispute resolution proceeding with the parties, counsel or insurers in this case and may do so in the future.

4. Mediation is a confidential process. Any documents submitted to the mediator(s) and statements made during the mediation, including proposed settlement terms, are for settlement purposes only and are confidential. All information provided to the mediator that is evidence otherwise admissible or discoverable shall not be rendered inadmissible or undiscoverable because of its use in the Mediation.

The parties and counsel agree not to subpoena the mediator(s) or any JAMS employee or any documents prepared by or for submission to the mediator(s). In no event will the mediator(s) voluntarily testify on behalf of any party or third-person or submit any type of report in connection with this mediation. The parties agree that neither the mediator nor JAMS is a necessary party in any arbitral or judicial proceeding relating to the mediation or to the subject of the mediation. Neither JAMS nor its employees or agents, including the mediator shall be liable to any party for any act or omission in connection with any mediation conducted under this Agreement.

During the course of the mediation process, the parties and counsel will not discuss any matter relating to the mediation with the press except by express written permission of all parties and counsel.

Documents or information designated as privileged under the attorney/client or attorney/work product doctrine that are disclosed to the mediator shall be kept confidential by the mediator unless the disclosing party otherwise agrees. Disclosure of such documents or information to the mediator shall not be deemed by the parties a waiver of any privilege.

5. The mediator, Michael K. Lewis Esq., will review any written information submitted by the parties and counsel and may request position papers from each side outlining the legal and factual issues in the dispute as well as the range of settlement options. The mediator will conduct a face-to-face session with all counsel and parties present. In the initial meeting, at what is called the "joint session," each side will be expected to present a summary of their view of the case, and respond to the mediator's questions. After the joint session, the mediator may hold a series of private sessions with each side separately to assist them in trying to find a mutually acceptable solution. The mediator may hold subsequent sessions, and discussions with counsel on the phone. The parties agree to participate in good faith in the entire mediation process. If a party wishes to terminate its participation for any reason, it may do so by giving notice to the mediator and the other parties.
6. Any documents provided to the mediator by the parties can be destroyed by JAMS 30 days after the conclusion of the mediation, unless JAMS is otherwise instructed by the parties.
7. This mediation shall begin on September 13, 2021 and is expected to be completed by September 14, 2022.
8. The parties and counsel have proposed that Michael K. Lewis Esq. be paid at the rate of $650 per hour in addition to a 10% Case Management Fee. The parties and counsel estimate that the mediation will take 100 hours. The Department of State will pay 100% of the total fee. Therefore, the total amount of the fee for the United States shall be $71,500. This cap on fees payable to the mediator shall be subject to upward revision upon the agreement of the parties that the mediation should be extended up to a specified additional number of hours.
9. The above requirement for the payment or obligation of funds by the United States shall be subject to the approval by appropriate officials within the Department. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to require obligation or payment of funds in violation of the Anti-Deficiency Act, 31 U.S.C. §§ 1341, 1342, 1511-1519. In the event that appropriated funds are not available, no other party shall be liable either to the mediator or to the United States for such obligation.

10. No party or counsel shall be bound by anything said or done at the mediation unless a written settlement is reached and executed by all necessary parties and counsel. If a settlement is reached, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and, when signed and approved by the appropriate authorities for all parties and counsel, shall be binding upon all parties and counsel to the agreement.
11. The parties and their attorneys agree to pay JAMS as set forth in Exhibit A, which is incorporated in this Agreement.
